

Interested in becoming a peer mediator?

We are always looking for new volunteers to join our team! Mediation is a free and confidential process for resolving conflicts collaboratively. Mediators have one of the most important roles on campus: helping provide a safe and neutral environment for community members to resolve conflict through cooperation. Training is provided by UNH Mediation Services and the time commitment is flexible based on your schedule!

Why Volunteer?

- Work with students to resolve conflict
 - Feel like a part of your community
 - Free training!
- Learn skills you can apply in your career and your personal life
 - Explore new career path opportunities
 - Looks great on a resume!

For more information visit www.unh.edu/mediation

Volunteer Form

Please hand in or mail this form to:

UNH Mediation Services
Office of Conduct and
Mediation
5 Quad Way Hitchcock Hall
Room 4 Durham NH 03824
603-862-3377

Name

Campus address

Telephone

E-mail

I am interested in learning more about:

- How to become a peer mediator volunteer
- How mediation works

UNIVERSITY of NEW HAMPSHIRE